I am pleased to recommend Kushal Mahesh Handigund for any future endeavors. He/She successfully completed 4 weeks of C++ Programming Internship at LearnSmasher, where he/she worked diligently and demonstrated exceptional skills and abilities. During his/her time with us, he/she has consistently displayed a positive attitude, strong work ethic, eagerness to learn and was always diligent, focused, and detail oriented which allowed him/her to complete tasks efficiently and to a high standard.

In summary, he/she has the skills, dedication, and work ethic that will make him/her an asset to any organization. I highly recommend him/her for any future employment or educational pursuits.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Founder
LearnSmasher
